This half term we are learning starting a topic called Patterns. Patterns are everywhere in art and used in many different styles by many different artist.

You have to research an artist that uses patterns in their work and create a pastiche of their work. You can use any materials you like. Remember a Pastiche means to create in their style.

Expectations:

1. Research an artist that uses patterns in their work and inspires you. I have included Mauri art, Van Gogh, Bruce Grey and Yayoi Kusama, but you can use any that you like.
2. Create your own version of their work taking inspiration from their style.

Think about:-

- What makes their style unique?
- How can you reproduce it in a different way?

3. Create your final picture using any medium you like (Painting, collage, drawing etc.) pattern work is relaxing, enjoy the process!
