

PRESENTATION

PRESENTATION

- Dates and titles should be underlined with a ruler
- Mistakes should be crossed out using one straight line which is drawn with a ruler
- There should be no scribbling out whatsoever
- There should be no graffiti/vandalism either inside or outside of books
- Pictures/diagrams should be drawn in pencil
- Labelling of diagrams should be done with a ruler
- Handwriting should be neat
- Handwriting should be joined if possible
- These points also apply when peer marking.

ARE YOU A PRESENTATION EXPERT?

find out today!

Book covers should not be drawn on. They should only contain your name, class and teacher.

WHAT DOES THIS SCHOOL EXPECT?

Titles must be centred and underlined.

Fully written or short dates should be written in the margin and underlined.

Writing must start next to the margin unless it is a new paragraph.

All drawings, diagrams and maps should be drawn in pencil and labelled in pen.

Pencils should be used to colour in any diagrams within exercise books, not felt and gel pens.

Graphs should be drawn in pencil and labelled in pen on the horizontal and vertical axis.

Numbers of questions must be written in the margin, if there is one.

When starting a new paragraph pupils should start on the next line and indent when writing by hand or miss a line out with no indentation when typing.

Mistakes should be crossed out with one straight ruled line.

Within maths, pupils should write one digit per square.

SO – HAVE YOU BEEN LISTENING SO FAR?
LETS FIND OUT!

A

QUESTION 1

Thursday 6th March

Shakespeare's Macbeth

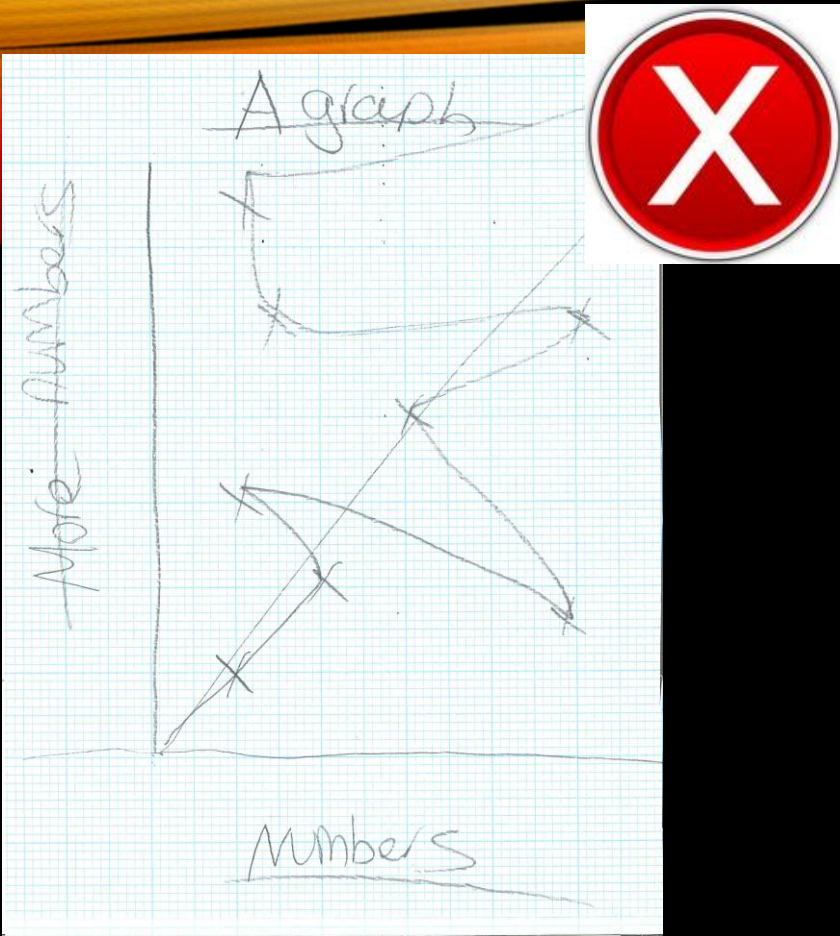

B

Thursday 6th March 2015      Shakespeare's Macbeth

A

QUESTION 2

B

A

QUESTION 3

B

And the little green giant said
used his red feet to walk home.

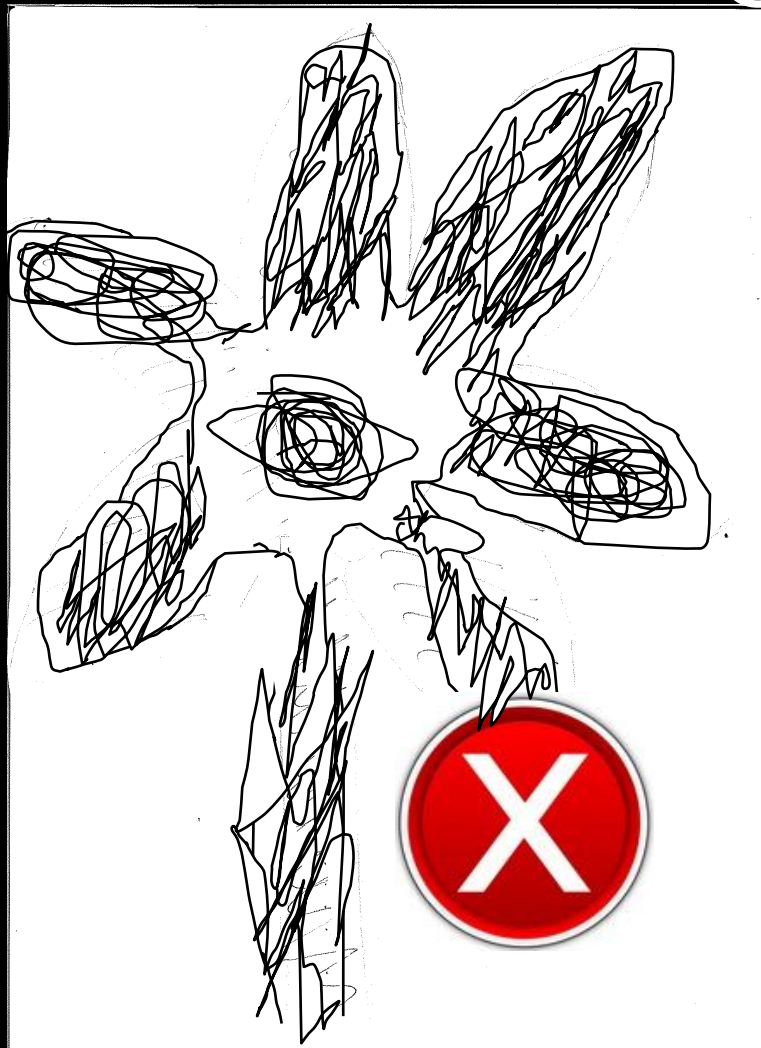

A

QUESTION 4

B

A. ~~Shakespeare's Macbeth was written for the king and was based~~
~~on his life~~

QUESTION 5

B. ~~Shakespeare's Macbeth was written for the king and was~~
~~based on his life~~

C. ~~Shakespeare's Macbeth was written for the king or~~
~~based on his life~~

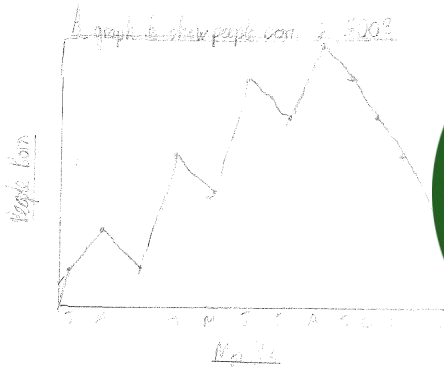

A

Monday 7th May 2003

Happy Birthday!

Today is a birthday of many people in this world. It is 2003 and Someone in Lindisfarne Middle School was born.

B

QUESTION 7

Monday 7th May 2003

Happy Birthday!

Today is a birthday of many people in this world. It is 2003 and Someone in Lindisfarne was born.

Book covers should not be drawn on. They should only contain your name, class and teacher.

WHAT HAVE WE LEARNED?

Writing must start next to the margin unless it is a new paragraph.

Within maths, pupils should write one digit per square.

Pencils should be used to colour in any diagrams within exercise books, not felt and Gel pens.

Mistakes should be crossed out with one straight ruled line.

Fully written dates should be written in the margin and underlined.

Titles must be centred and underlined.

Numbers of questions must be written in the margin, if there is one.

All drawings, diagrams and maps should be drawn in pencils and labelled in pen.

When starting a new paragraph pupils should start on the next line and indent when writing by hand or miss a line out with no indentation when typing.

Graphs should be drawn in pencil, and labelled in pen on the horizontal/vertical axis.

Presentation Alert!

This book has been looked at by Mrs. Carr and she thinks that presentation needs to improve. Please ensure that the following guidelines are followed from now on:

- Dates and titles should be underlined with a ruler
- Mistakes should be crossed out using one straight line which is drawn with a ruler
- There should be no scribbling out whatsoever
- There should be no graffiti/vandalism either inside or outside of books
- Pictures/diagrams should be drawn in pencil
- Labelling of diagrams should be done with a ruler
- Handwriting should be neat
- Handwriting should be joined if possible
- A new paragraph should be started on the next line and indented.

This book will be looked at again in a few weeks to ensure that presentation has improved.