

Technology

Year 5

| |
|--|
| This year your child has been studying: Food and Resistant Materials |
| During the year pupils have two six week projects within each area. They learn about the health and safety issues related to both areas. |
| They cover units relating to: healthy eating, and developing their ability to use a wide range of workshop tools and machinery. Pupils work with wood and plastics and gain a basic understanding of linkages. |

Year 6

| |
|--|
| This year your child has been studying: Food and Resistant Materials |
| Pupils develop their understanding of health and safety within these areas. |
| They complete projects on: a balanced diet, bread, and developing their ability to use a wide range of workshop tools and machinery. Pupils work with wood and plastics. |

Year 7

| |
|---|
| This year your child has been studying: Food, textiles and Resistant Materials |
| The pupils will have experienced projects based on the following schemes: celebration cakes, and textiles. They develop their ability to use a wide range of tools and machinery and gain a basic understanding of electronics. |

Year 8

| |
|---|
| This year your child has been studying: Food, Textiles and Resistant Materials |
| They carry out projects to develop their practical skills and their creativity - |
| Cushions, making a meal. They develop their ability to use a wide range of tools and machinery. Pupils work with wood and plastics. |