

Dear Parents/Carers,

With such a short week, no wonder it's Friday again already! It's been a busy week. We're currently recruiting for several posts for September and I have enjoyed showing lots of candidates around our wonderful school. I'll keep you updated as the term progresses.

Our attendance figure this week is 95.7% which is great. The government expects your child's attendance to be 95% or better and schools are held to account for your child's attendance. Should we have any concerns about this, we will be in touch.

Have a lovely weekend.

Lindsay Hamilton

Thank you, Y5!

Y5 have put their gardening skills to the test by creating some wonderful hanging baskets for the front of our school! Thank you, Y5, and Mrs Parkinson for brightening up our environment.

Perfect Pastry!

Y6 made some wonderful sausage and savoury rolls this week! We thought we'd share some photos as we're not sure how many made it home!

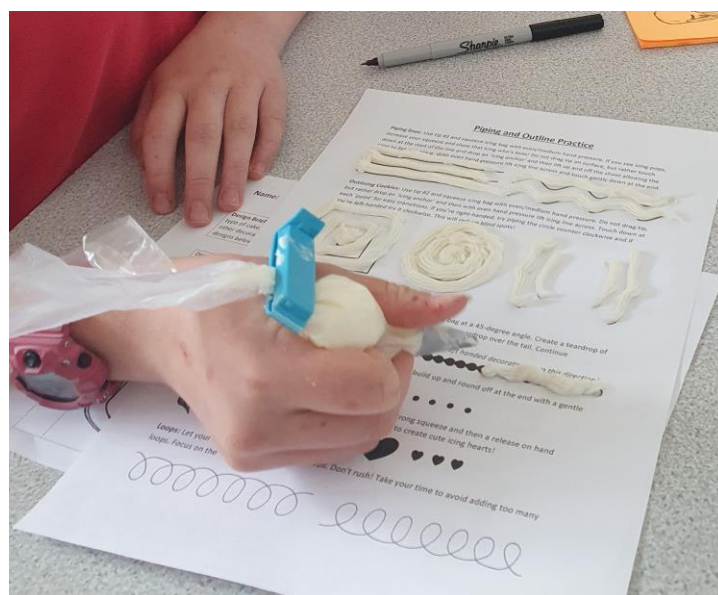

And well done to Ed, who was awarded 'Star Baker' by Miss Read for not only baking wonderful rolls, but for also showing great kindness by helping so many others.

Perfect Piping!

Y8 hard were hard at work this week practising their piping and icing skills - such careful concentration! We're looking forward to seeing their celebration cakes!
