HEADTEACHER MESSAGE

A warm welcome back to all our pupils and their families for the spring term at Bellingham Middle. Everyone has made an excellent start after the holidays and we look forward to another busy and exciting term together.

Thank you to Rev Dr Susan Ramsaran for coming into school and giving pupils an assembly all about Epiphany, including the journey of the Magi and their gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. Everyone was interested to see how the traditional contents of a Christmas cracker can be used to remind us of the Magi. Well done to Max and Elise for being brilliant helpers.

Our whole school trip on Friday saw a wonderful afternoon at the Theatre Royal in Newcastle, as pupils enjoyed watching a matinee performance of “Beauty and the Beast”. As ever, BMS pupils were a credit to their school and a pleasure to take out. Thank you to all staff for supporting this trip and to all our families for the evening collection.

Thank you to all families of pupils going to Normandy in May for the return of passport photographs and consent forms. An EHIC is also required (free online). If you need any support obtaining one for your child, then please do not hesitate to get in touch.

Finally, although we have not had any severe winter weather, in the event of school closures, parents can find out whether school is open or not by ringing Message Line: 0844 445 7463, charged at a local rate, or listening to BBC Radio Newcastle, or looking at the school or county websites (www.northumberland.gov.uk/alerts).

Kind regards,
Helen Samuels,
Acting Headteacher

Children's Dream Restaurant Television Opportunity:

Lion Television Company (responsible for Horrible Histories and Homes under the Hammer) has been in touch with our school to invite applications from any interested children for a new television series, which will see teams of children working together to create a themed pop-up restaurant of their design, including menu.

Your child would need to get together with other children to form a team of six; three would cook up their delicious menu whilst three would be responsible for the dining service. Any pupils wishing to apply should see Mrs Samuels for an application pack. Parental consent must be given. All instructions are included in the application pack, should your child wish to apply.
