

Enrichment Homework Autumn 1

Year Group: 7

Subject: RE

Link to learning:

This half term we are learning all about saints and thinking about their role in society. This task will develop your research skills and your ideas about role models.

Your Task:

To produce an informative and reflective piece of writing about someone you consider to be a good role model.

Expectations:

Your writing should include:

- A brief introduction to this person including some biographical information such as: when and where they were born and details about their family and life in general.
- An explanation of the things they have done which make them a good role model.
- Information about the impact they have had on others.
- A personal response from you : Why do you admire this person? What do you think are their best qualities? What have you learnt from them? What do they inspire in you?

Your work should be neatly handwritten OR typed.

It should be at least 2 pages.

Use your own words. Do not copy and paste text.

You may include images in your work.
